

Ranging out of Canada's Okanagan Valley, solo alt-country singer-songwriter Johnny Bolo has been a presence in the Western Canada music scene for over 20 years. Touring Canada & Europe, from festivals to dive bars, Johnny brings his entertaining "Blue Rodeo meets Jimmy Buffett" sound, engaging audiences with soaring vocals & driving guitar work.

Born in Sudbury Ontario, son of a hard rock miner, raised on the wide plains of Saskatchewan, Johnny Bolo (JB) delivers smiles, energy, connection & Joy!

Outlaws & rebels, lovers & dreamers populate his songs, with an authenticity born of his travels & travails. JB brings you stories of the road, of trains, freedom, & Joy. You'll find something to connect with in a Johnny Bolo show!

His debut EP "Out On The Land" received world-wide accolades, & extensive Canadian community & CBC airplay.

Johnny's upcoming full-length release "Be On the Lookout" showcases 10 well-crafted original songs of love, loss, Joy & trains! Recorded at Vancouver's Flash Studios, with engineer Jackson J. Gardner (Sam Roberts Band; Yukon Blonde; Spank Williams), & populated with some of Vancouver's best session players (Emmett Jerome, Tyler Ross Murray, Spank Williams himself, & Jonny Scorpio), "Be On the Lookout" is poised to receive Juno attention & is steadily picking up pre-release spins, blogs, & great reviews.

From a wellspring of inspiration fed by John Prine, Van Morrison, Townes Van Zandt & Steve Earle, Johnny crafts touching songs that reverberate in hearts long after the show. His sweet originals & covers of gems like Gordon Lightfoot's "Canadian Railroad Trilogy," Bob Dylan's "Lily, Rosemary & the Jack of Hearts" & more make a great night of music!

A life spent on the road, as a travelling salesman, truck driver, & wandering minstrel gives Johnny a unique & grounded perspective on life, love, loss, & joy, weaving a discernible thread through his music.
